Doctor's Daughter

Imagination in Disease.

I do not believe that there is any disease that will make you feel as badly or cause you so much suffering as indigestion. When you have indigestion, you imagine you have other diseases because you feel badly all over your body.

Many times you will doctor for rheumatism, catarrh, kidney trouble, gout or some one of the other diseases you may think you have, when the real seat of your trouble is the stomach or liver.

What is the first question your doctor asks you? Isn't it, "How's your bowels?" Why does he ask this? Because, if the stomach and digestive tract do not act right that is the first place to correct.

He also knows that if the stomach and liver do not act right, his other treatment would be of no use.

We receive all of our nourishment through the stomach and intestines and when the digestive tract is out of order we do not get good nourishment from our food, without which we would soon die.

It isn't what you eat that keeps you alive it is what you digest.

Also, when the liver is inactive, the poisonous matter which should be discharged, is taken up and absorbed by the intestines into the blood thereby poisoning your whole system and causing various diseases. So I say to you, if you will keep the stomach and liver in a sweet, clean, active, healthy condition, your general health will take care of itself.

Stomach-Rite is a combined stomach and liver remedy, helping these organs into a new life and activity, thereby giving you more benefit from the food you eat, which is the true secret of perfect health.

IF YOU SUFFER, DON'T WAIT, GO TO-DA, GO NOW and get you a box of Stomach-Rite and see for yourself what a grand medicine it is.

Stomach-Rite can be obtained at

RIFLE WIZARDS.
Modern Ones Just as Skillful As Any of Cooper's Heroes.

Persons who recall their Cooper must remember the merriment with which Leatherstocking brought down his enemies with his trusty rifle. The novel simply drew the picture of a frontier marksman, one of a large class who depended for their lives on the accuracy of their aim and the efficiency of their weapon. There were many such who ranged the woods in our colonial days, though few had the fortune to leave records accessible to a greater writer with the gift of story telling.

Their feats survive in local tradition, as the exploits of Robin Hood are preserved in ballads that have lasted for centuries.

The readers of Cooper whose faith in the marksmanship of Leatherstocking has been shaken, who have thought that his eye and skill were superhuman, will find themselves fortified in their trust by the wonderful records achieved at the Wakefield range recently. The rifles used were weapons of which the forest Teller of the eighteenth century never dreamed save in visions conjured up by enthusiasm for their art; the ranges were unheard of in the great fighting era of 100 years ago, when beyond 200 yards the musket was of little value, but despite changed conditions the requirements for efficiency are the same. The eye must be as true, the nerve as steady, the weapon as well poised, as when Morgan's riflemen in the Revolution constituted a corps d'elite, whose performances astonished both armies.

Corporal Schofield's achievement of 116 consecutive bull's-eyes at 500 yards is as wonderful as anything recorded in the history of firearms. It practically doubles the world's record. Sergeant Wahlstrom did a remarkable thing in scoring 33 bull's-eyes in succession at 800 yards. All the team work was of a very high average. Schofield is of our 5th Massachusetts and Wahlstrom fired for the marines, and both the militia and the navy gave good accounts of themselves. The naval teams fired with, but not against, the militia, their presence being for practice, not for competition.—Boston Transcript.

NO MORE BLEACHED FLOUR.
Millers Interdicted Pending Final Decision of the Case.

Washington, Aug. 2.—Millers must stop bleaching flour, pending adjudication by the higher courts, or stand criminal prosecution for each shipment made in interstate commerce, according to a decision here yesterday at a conference between officials of the departments of agriculture and justice.

About the State

Rutland's ice crop is holding out well this summer, in spite of the excessive heat. One firm cut 8,000 tons and it is about half gone. The firm supplies customers in Rutland and Proctor, furnishes ice for the milk car that runs daily to Boston and expects to send ice to Eagle Bridge, N. Y., and Burlington.

The two weeks' session of the Vermont summer school for teachers at Rutland closed Friday, the attending having reached 87. In his address Thursday before the teachers, Dr. C. S. Caverly of Rutland president of the state board of health, made the startling statement that two Vermont schools had recently been closed because of their low moral tone.

Representatives of the New York Milk company have purchased a tract of land at Salisbury and will begin at once the construction of a sterilizing plant, such as was erected in that village a year ago. This company intends to erect four new plants along the Rutland railroad between that village and Bennington. The work of erecting the plant at Salisbury will begin at once.

Ethel, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Eggleston of Rutland, who had been missing about a week, was located by Sheriff E. C. Fish at the Glenwood hotel in Castleton. The girl's parents went to Clemons, N. Y., a short time ago, leaving the girl with her grandmother. On the evening of July 17, the girl left the house and had not been seen since, until found at Lake Bomoseen, where he was working as dish washer.

Store at Ludlow Burglarized.
Burglars broke into the Pollard store at Ludlow Wednesday night and got away undisturbed with a lot of booty, valued at about $300, and some cash. It is thought that the theft was the work of a very small man, as a little window was used to gain an entrance.

In addition to $17 in change, there were stolen two pairs of tan colored shoes, 10 watches, including four women's time-pieces with oxidized cases, 20 watch chains and a suit of clothes.

It is believed that there were two men in the gang, and the local officers feel certain that they went south. Authorities all over the county and in the adjoining counties have been notified.

ST. JOHNSBURY.
Marriage of Charles Lane and Teresa Fraser Yesterday.

C. A. Calderwood left for Waterbury today in his automobile, where he is called to attend a meeting of the trustees at the Vermont hospital for the insane.

Edward Peterson, salesman for A. L. Bailey's music store, will take his family to Lake Memphremagog today for a two weeks' vacation and outing.

Arthur Little left for the White mountains today, where he has employment for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Klime from Giant's Pass, Oregon, are stopping a few days with friends in town. They came as far as Cleveland by train and from there they came in their Winton automobile.

Edward Beard of Boston visited his wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. Helen and Emeline Eastman, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Pettie have moved their camp, "The Shack," at Joe's pond, and returned to their home here in town.

Mrs. Abbie Warren of Stowe visited her brother, Walter J. Bigelow, for a few days last week.

A party of interested friends went to East Barre last Friday to witness the trial of Professor Bonette's new aeroplane. A trial flight was deferred, however, on account of the engine, which was not working well. It has been sent to the factory for further improvement.

Mrs. Mabel Carr from Stowe, where she has been employed as stenographer for Fish and Game Commissioner H. G. Thomas for the past eight years, passed through St. Johnsbury today en route for Lyndonville, where she will take up the same work with Mr. Thomas' successor, John W. Titcomb.

Dr. C. A. Crampton and family returned yesterday, after an extended trip through the White mountains and along the New England coast. They have been away for a month, making the entire trip in their large touring car. During his absence, the carpenters have been enlarging and repairing his offices in the Randall-Whitcomb block on Main street. He now has large and commodious rooms with which to accommodate his extensive practice.

James P. Richardson and wife are stopping with friends in town for a few days. Mr. Richardson will be remembered as a former student of St. Johnsbury academy. He is at present identified with a prominent legal firm in Boston.

Mrs. James Carder and Miss Helen Jenkins have been visiting in Glover for the past ten days. They are expected home to-night.

Mrs. John M. Carder of Meredith, N. H., visited her son, James M. Carder, and other relatives about town, for ten days past.

Georgina Anderson, who is working in Goodrich's tailor shop, is visiting her mother in Almonte, Ontario.

A son was born to Dr. and Mrs. Millmore on Main street Saturday. A son was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Masse on the same day.

Wedding bells were heard again Monday morning, when Charles Lane of St.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be naturally bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, none be bald if he will use Newbott's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the roots and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Marmett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the anemia of his growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in a few weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to Dr. Herpicide Co., Chicago, Ill.

One Dollar Bottles Guaranteed.
E. A. Brown, Special Agent.

Johnsbury was married to Miss Teresa Fraser of Iowa. Miss Fraser arrived in town last Saturday. Mr. Lane is well known in St. Johnsbury as the general proprietor of the Pope restaurant on Eastern avenue. After a short trip through the White mountains, they will occupy rooms in Bertrand's new block.

WOMAN FOILS LYNCHERS.
Stands Them Off with Pistol—Mob Takes Man to Jail.

Eaton, Ga., Aug. 2.—A mob clamoring for the life of Will Ingram, a negro, was foiled Sunday by the bravery of Mrs. Sallie Hillhouse of this place, who stood in front of the negro, pistol in hand, and told the mob that there would be no lynching.

The negro, accused of burglary, had been arrested, but broke away from the officer and fled through town, pursued by a crowd firing at him. Mrs. Hillhouse was leaving her home for church, when the exhausted negro fell at her feet and cried to her to save his life.

He had a pistol, which he gave to Mrs. Hillhouse. She took the weapon and faced the mob as it approached. She asserted that it would be a shame to lynch the negro and declared that she would not allow such an outrage on the law.

The courage of Mrs. Hillhouse appealed to the mob, and she was cheered and a promise given that the negro would not be harmed. The leaders of the mob then took the negro and escorted him to jail. Mrs. Hillhouse accompanying to see that the negro was not harmed.

AUTO CRASHED INTO TEAM.
One Man Slightly Hurt Near Burlington Saturday.

Burlington, Aug. 1.—A large touring car, driven by G. W. Pappin of this city, crashed into a wagon containing Charles Martin of Essex Junction early Saturday morning near St. Michael's college. No one was, however, very seriously injured, although Martin sustained several cuts about the head and was taken to the Fanny Allen hospital, where he was well last evening.

William Gleason, clerk at the Van Ness house, was in the car. He was thrown from the car and over a fence by the force of the impact, but is only suffering from a laceration as a result.

The accident took place near a sharp curve and neither party saw the other until it was too late to prevent trouble. Mr. Pappin says that he was going at a speed of about ten miles an hour and had all of his lights burning. As soon as Martin could get up after being thrown, he rushed to the horse to control the animal, but when assistance arrived he was taken to the hospital, as it was feared he had suffered internal injuries. The car and wagon were both badly damaged.

Struck a Rich Mine.
